

The Lincoln Park Library Concert at the Lake

Our first Concert at the Lincoln Park Lake is scheduled for July 24th at 7:00. We are featuring the Classic Rock Band “Force of Habit”

“Force of Habit” has been playing in the North Jersey area for over 20 years. The music is a mixture of rock, pop, blues, R&B and country with a strong emphasis on danceable music.

The Band members included: Bob Trusewcz on Guitar & Vocals, Glenn Schwesinger on Lead Guitar & Vocals, Pete Tanis on Keyboard & Vocals, Mark Benfante on Drums, Steve Schwesinger on Saxophone and Keith Johnson on Bass guitar & Vocals.

“Force of Habit” always seeks to assure everyone is having a good time dancing while enjoying their instrumental skills, strong vocals and harmony. They are quite sure you will recognize and love all the tunes they perform for us.

“We are thrilled to be able to continue our “Concerts at the Lake Series” this year. The Lincoln Park Lake is perfect for this type of event”, said Wayne Odenbrett, President of the Library Board of Trustees.

The Lincoln Park Library Concert Series is perfect for our friends of all ages. So bring you lawn chairs or beach blanket. Tell all your friends. Wear your dancing shoes. Food and beverages will be available. Come early for the best parking spots!

And it’s FREE. See you there!
